

Power Down Your Devices

The energy and resources used to generate the electricity necessary to power a computer 24/7/365 releases approximately 1500 lbs of CO2 into the atmosphere.*

- Use “sleep” settings when your computer is on
- Turn down your monitor’s brightness
- Turn off your computer, monitor, and other devices when not in use
- Use a smart or motion sensor power strip
- Reuse and recycling equipment responsibly

*Mottram, Bill http://wikibon.org/wiki/v/Some_Green_Facts:_simple_common_sense_steps_can_contribute_significantly_to_a_green_computing_environment